DIRECTOR'S MESSAGE

It is with great pleasure I present the Annual Report of NAAC for the period from 01st April 2005 to 31st March 2006.

The impact made by the National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC) on the Quality of Higher Education Institutions in the country is noteworthy. Over 12 years of its existence, institutions coming forward for assessment have been steadily increasing. NAAC has assessed and accredited 2866 higher education institutions as on 31st March 2006. The State Level Quality Assurance Cells (QACs) in most of the States have helped NAAC in dissemination and promotion of assessment and accreditation activities. All this NAAC could achieve, because of constant support and cooperation of the MHRD and UGC. I wish to place on record my sincere thanks to the outgoing President of the General Council Dr. Arun Nigavekar, Chairman, UGC (till July 2005) and also the founder Director of NAAC; and the present President of the General Council of NAAC, Prof. Sukhadeo Thorat, Chairman, UGC for their guidance.

I owe thanks to GC, EC, AAC, FC, and all other committees of NAAC. I wish to thank the AIU, NCTE, DCI for their cooperation. I would also like to thank all the academia who have been associated with NAAC in various capacities.

I thank all my predecessors for the strong foundation laid for the assessment and accreditation processes because of which NAAC could achieve all this. NAAC has organized many programmes related to quality assurance in collaboration with the Universities and Colleges across the country in all the regions viz., North, East, North, East, South and West.

All these activities have been done with a minimum core academic staff (ten officers). I must congratulate my colleagues at NAAC - academic and establishment staff for their commendable commitment and excellent contribution resulting in this endeavour.

INTRODUCTION

1.1 PRELUDE

The National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC) is an autonomous institution of the University Grants Commission (UGC) with its prime agenda to assess and accredit institutions of higher learning in the country. The MHRD and UGC have mandated that all colleges should complete the process of assessment and accreditation. The NAAC has been established in the year 1994 and is headquartered at Bangalore. The process of assessment and accreditation has created a tremendous momentum among the academia on issues pertaining to quality and this has largely been due to the successful partnership between NAAC and the State governments.

The impact that the NAAC has made on Higher Education Institutions (HEI's) is evident from the number of quality assurance seminars and workshops that have been conducted in the year 2005-2006 in order to achieve its objectives. Hitherto, the NAAC has conducted awareness programs in all most all States and this has triggered many regional level and district level activities. With a large number of institutions yet to undergo the process of assessment and accreditation, NAAC is preparing for the e-assessment procedures and practices. Quality Sustenance and Quality Enhancement are the two key words reverberating in most institutions of higher learning in the country today. While the initial phase of the transformation focused on creating phase is now more focused on creating institutions of the future. Also the issue of colleges and universities being adequately prepared for academic life from the perspective of students takes on more importance. HEI's are today obsessed with quality sustenance and enhancement measures and have inculcated a professional approach towards curricular restructuring, intervention strategies for quality enhancement, academic audits etc., which would ultimately pave way for easier assessment and accreditation by the NAAC.

NAAC is the member of the International Quality Assurance Agencies in Higher Education (INQAAHE) and a founder-member of Asia-Pacific Quality Network (APQN).

1.2 NAAC : OBJECTIVES

The objectives of NAAC is to assess and accredit institutions of higher learning, universities and colleges or one or more of their units, i.e., departments, schools, institutions, programmes, etc.

- d) promote necessary changes, innovations and reforms in all aspects of the institutions working for the above purpose;
- e) encourage innovations, self evaluation and accountability in higher education.

In order to meet its mandate NAAC will :

- a) Review periodically and revise and update as and when considered necessary in the light of experience gained the techniques and modalities of assessment;
- b) Communicate the results of assessment and grading to the concerned institution in a form and manner appropriate for corrective action, rectification and self improvement;
- c) Help and encourage the institutions in developing their own procedures, techniques and modalities for self evaluation;
- d) Initiate research studies, in planning and evaluation of educational institutions, programmes etc.;
