

Report on Two-Day Workshop on “Choice Based Credit System Curriculum: A New Dimension to Higher Education”

Organized By IQAC, Birjhora Mahavidyalaya, Bongaigaon, Assam

Sponsored By NAAC, Bengaluru

Coordinator : Dr. M. S. Shyamasundar, Adviser, NAAC

Venue : Birjhora Mahavidyalaya, Mayapuri, Bongaigaon, Assam

Date : 1st & 2nd February, 2019

The inaugural programme of the workshop was started with ‘Saraswati Bandana’ by students of the college at 10.30 A.M which was followed by ceremonial lighting by the Hon’ble Chief Guest Prof. Nissar Ahmed Baruah and other dignitaries on the dais. Principal of the College Dr. K. K. Sarma delivered welcome address.

The sub themes of the workshop were:

Course structure of CBCS

Prospects and problems of CBCS

Overcoming challenges in implementing CBCS

Quality status of Higher Education in India with reference to CBCS curriculum.

Five resource persons namely,

Prof. Nissar Ahmed Baruah, CC-UG, G.U

Dr Dharmendra Nath, Principal,

S. B. Deorah College, Guwahati;

Prof. Utpal Sarmah, Director, IQAC, G.U;

Prof. Krishna Gopal Bhattacharjee, Ex-Director, ASC, G. U and

Prof. Kalyan Bhuya, Director, IQAC, D.U, Assam were invited.

Resource persons delivered lecture on different sub themes in the workshop and interacted with the participants. The interactions in different Academic Sessions were very fascinating and lively one.

The workshop was witnessed by 50 No’s participants from different colleges from western part of Assam and 25 No’s of participants from in house.

With that fulfilled our aim and objectives of the workshop:

1. Creation of awareness about CBCS among the stakeholders
2. Sharing the knowledge of CBCS among the stake holders.
3. Challenges we have to face due to implementation of CBCS.

The valedictory function was chaired by Prof. Jogen Chandra Kalita, Director, UGC-HRDC, G. U. Concluding speech was given by Dr. K. K. Sarma, Principal of the college.

Vote of thanks was offered by Dr. B. K. Saha, Convener / Organising Secretary of the workshop. He offered his thanks to the Resource persons, Organising Committee and participants for bearing all pains to attend the workshop at Birjhora Mahavidyalaya, Bongaigaon, Assam.

